CHARBON RAGES IN EAST TEXAS

Horses and Mules Dying in Great Numbers
Men Contract the Disease.

Special to the Eagle.

Beaumont, Texas, June 30.—Charbon has appeared among the stock of this county and is having deadly effect. Former Mayor Drummond of Port Arthur has lost a number of mules. Reports from over the county indicate that the disease is rapidly spreading among stock.

Every effort is being made by the authorities to stamp it out. A similar condition prevails in Orange county and in the extreme section of Southwest Louisiana.

Governor Campbell stated that the state would make an effort to stamp out the disease.

BOY TOO YOUNG TO BE TRIED

Judges Refuse to Hold Examining Trial on Account of Boy's Tender
Years.

Special to the Eagle.

Waco, Texas, June 30.—Justice Nathan yesterday morning refused to hold the examining trial of George Cohen, 9 years old, charged with the murder of Margaret Farrell, saying the boy was too young for such procedure. Judge Marshall Starnett of the Nineteenth district court likewise refused to handle the case.

It is believed the boy will be sent to the county court and that juvenile proceedings will be had there.

Brazos Union Lodge Matters.

At a stated meeting of the Brazos Union Lodge No. 29, A. F. and A. M. on Monday night, the following committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Col. Thomas Rowan, an honored member of the order, and who served the lodge long and faithfully as filer: Gen. H. B. Stoddard, Capt. W. E. Saunders and A. J. Buchanan. By invitation Gen. H. B. Stoddard conducted the installation of the following newly elected officers: W. S. Wilson, Jr., senior warden; J. D. Martin, junior warden; and A. R. Sutton, filer. Mr. H. G. Rhodes, the newly elected worshipful master, was not present and will be installed later.

MORE ABOUT THAT CORN TEST.

The time is now getting short and the boys will remember that I, by the authority of the Farmers Union announced that I would be able to give other prizes besides the buggy and harness. So I am now ready to make the following announcement:

There will be ten prizes offered.

The first will be the Moon buggy and handstitched Tenison harness as has already been announced.

The other nine will be in cash as follows:

2nd best	$12.50
3rd best	10.00
4th best	7.50
5th best	5.00
6th best	5.00
7th best	4.00
8th best	3.00
9th best	2.00
10 best	1.00

So you see if you do not get one, you will stand a chance to get another. Any of them are worth working for. So let us not fail to stay busy.

Your friend truly

A. W. Buchanan.

BISHOP WARD GOES BACK TO THE EAST

Missionary Churches in Japan, China and Korea Under Him.

Bishop Seth Ward, who is in charge of the work of Southern Methodism in the Orient, will leave Houston on July 14 for Japan and go from there to China and Korea. He will be away on this trip about four months. This is the second time within a year that Bishop Ward has visited the missionary churches of the East. His family will not accompany him but will remain in Houston. Rev. Dr. Bradford of Dallas, a prominent North Texas Methodist minister, will accompany Bishop Ward. They will go by way of San Francisco to Japan and from there make the tour of the far East.

Bishop Ward is one of the best informed men in the Southern church on matters political and religious in the Eastern nations and while he will not discuss the political features and the great problems that are now being worked out in Manchuria, Korea, Japan and China, yet his influence and words have given the denomination he represents a strong hold in the Christianized population of those lands.—Houston Chronicle.

BRAZOS COUNTY SINGING CONVENTION.

The Brazos County Singing Convention, one of the leading musical organizations of this section of Texas, will meet in annual session on next Saturday and Sunday, July 3rd and 4th at Steep Hollow church. The indications are that all the choirs in the county will be represented by delegates and that large crowds will be in attendance on both days. President I. M. Cook and the citizens of Steep Hollow generally are making preparations to entertain the many visitors who will be there.

On Sunday the various choirs will contest for the Wilson & Derden cup, and the contest promises to be one of much interest. The cup will be presented to the winning choir by Mr. A. W. Buchanan.

The second premium, a beautiful banner, which will be presented by the convention to the second best choir, was on exhibition today in the show window of Parks & Waldrop. It is a red silk banner, lettered in gold as follows: "Brazos County Singing Convention, organized Oct. 30, 1897. Victory is ours."

Barrie and Kipling.

Mr. Barrie was one day at Waterloo station in a hurry to catch a train. He was hastening from the bookstall laden with papers, "a good many six-penny ones among them," he dolefully relates, when, in rushing around a corner, he fell into the arms of Rudyard Kipling, equally in a tearing hurry. They turned on each other with scowling faces, then smiled in recognition and asked each other whether he went. Then Kipling, exclaiming, "Lucky beggar, you've got papers!" seized the bundle from Barrie, flung him some money and made off. "But you did not stoop to pick up his dirty halfpence, did you?" queried one of Mr. Barrie's hearers amusedly. "Didn't I, though?" returned Barrie, and added ruefully, "But he hadn't flung me half enough."—St. James' Gazette.

The Lark's Song.

A writer on "The Wonders of the Spring" says that the volume of sound produced by the skylark is most wonderful. "The lark ascends until it appears no larger than a midge and can with difficulty be seen by the unaided eye, and yet every note of its song will be clearly audible to persons who are fully half a mile from the nest over which the bird utters its song. Moreover, it never ceases to sing for a moment, a feat which seems wonderful to us human beings, who find that a song of six or seven minutes in length, though interspersed with rests and pauses, is more than trying. Yet this bird will pour out a continuous song of nearly twenty minutes in length and all the time has to support itself in the air by the constant use of its wings."

Still Held the Grudge.

Medium (at seance)—Is there a Mrs. Kermit in the audience? Her first husband wishes to converse with her. Mrs. Kermit—There is, but you can tell him I don't care to have any confabulations with him. Tell him that when I went to collect his life insurance I found he'd let it lapse.—Chicago Tribune.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT. OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY.

Washington, June 25th, 1909.

WHEREAS, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "THE CITY NATIONAL BANK OF BRYAN," in the City of Bryan, in the County of Brazos and State of Texas, has complied with all the provisions of the "Act of Congress to enable National Banking Associations to extend their corporate existence and for other purposes," approved July 12th, 1882.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lawrence O. Murray, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The City National Bank of Bryan" in the City of Bryan, in the County of Brazos and State of Texas, is authorized to have succession for the period specified in its amended articles of association, namely until close of business on June 25th, 1929.

IN TESTIMONY whereof witness my hand and Seal of office this Twenty-fifth day of June, 1909.

LAWRENCE O. MURRAY,
Comptroller of the Currency.

PROHIBITION IN TENNESSEE

Every Saloon in Entire State Closes Finally at Midnight Tonight.

Special to the Eagle.

Nashville, Tenn., June 30.—"Weans of Tennessee" will awaken tomorrow morning to find themselves riding on the water wagon. The State-wide prohibition law passed by the legislature last winter over the veto of Governor Patterson becomes operative at midnight tonight. The law forbids the sale of alcoholic drinks within four miles of a schoolhouse, and will have the effect of closing the doors of virtually every saloon in the state. All the cities will become "dry," among them Memphis, which will thereby attain the distinction of being the largest city in the world where the sale of intoxicants is prohibited by law. Memphis now has six hundred saloons. Other large cities which will be affected are Nashville, with 131 saloons, and Chattanooga, which has 63 drink emporiums.

On January 1st next, six months after the retailers have received their knock-out blow, the brewers, distillers and others engaged in the manufacture of intoxicants, will be put out of business. On the date the state law forbidding the manufacture of intoxicants will come into force. The six months probation was given the brewers and distillers to enable them to dispose of their property.

It is estimated that the prohibition laws will cause a falling off of more than a million dollars in the revenue of Tennessee. Investments exceeding $10,000,000 in distilleries, breweries, rectifying establishments and wholesale and retail liquor stores will become idle indefinitely, and much of it will be lost, because no indemnity is provided for. It is also calculated that 12,000 persons will be thrown out of employment.

EDGE ETCHINGS.

Hot and dry is the cry from every corner. Crops have already been cut short and unless rain comes soon we will not make much.

Mr. George Robinson and sister Miss Bessie, of Wixon, were up Sunday.

Mrs. Lige Broadus came over from Robertson county last week. Her baby has been quite sick, but is improving at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hill returned Sunday from a visit to relatives in Robertson county.

The meeting in progress at the Baptist church is proving to be spiritually uplifting to those attending. Brother Carroll is a strong preacher and presents his themes in a clear forcible manner.

Mrs. Wooley is the guest of her brother Mr. V. T. Echols and family this week.

Miss Mary Bingham of Cavitt's ranch, was down Sunday, the guest of Miss Clara Hill.

We are sorry to report the illness of Lola, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Rosier.

The picnic barbecue given by the colored people on Cedar creek on last Friday passed off very quietly. A good many white people went down in the afternoon and were served with a nice dinner. The barbecued meat was unusually fine.
